

PROFESSOR B. B. BALIGA

Editor's Note: This obituary is unique in a sense that it is an amalgamation of the information about Prof. Baliga from a close friend and colleague and from the closest living family members of Prof. Baliga—his sons Ajay and Ambareesh Baliga. This gives the complete picture of a person - what an obituary ideally should be like. Many of the qualities of Prof. Baliga would have remained unknown to us if his two sons had not shared these exclusive information with us. The last paragraph is the unedited version of a portion of the tribute that I received from them. I thank Ajay and Ambareesh for their help.*
