DIVISIBILITY OF INTEGERS

ARNAB PALIT

An interesting observation where sums or differences of powers of certain natural numbers become divisible by five is presented in this article. The sum or differences of powers of some integers, which are not multiples of 5 can be made perfectly divisible by 5. Here's how it is.