

Education for Environment - Awareness, Attitude Change and Development

ABSTRACT: Educational environment concerned with teacher principles and teacher education, where as environmental education deals us knowledge of environment. When both are jointly in action – develops awareness. Awareness may influence the change of attitude and ultimately develops healthy environment.